Prof. S. S. Elam, Editor of the Kentucky School News, published at Frankfort Ky., was a visitor in town Tuesday night. The News is the best educational publication in the state and should be read by every teacher and student in Kentucky. The price of the news is two dollars. Subscriptions sent to the Eagle will be duly forwarded to the Editor.

Business throughout the coal-fields is good. In case the great miners strike in some of the big coal-fields ends we would feel uneasy as to this country. It would certainly make a slump in business.

Steps are now being taken which will likely end the strike.

Rob Holcomb is running a pool room and restaurant in the old postoffice building on Main street and invites the patronage of the public.

Last Sunday at Gander two basketball games were played. Pine Grove was defeated 25 to 14 by the Rockhouse team. H. D. Caudill for the losers and Marshall Hampton for the winners played the best. In the second game Montgomery beat Dudley 16 to 14 in one of the best games of the season. A large crowd witnessed the sport.

On July 17 the public schools of the county are scheduled to open. Supt. Clark would like to meet with all the teachers here on the Saturday before the beginning of school.

Crops look good in the Shelby, Beaver Creek and Sandy Valleys. And it is surprising to see how the people are farming over there and that too in the centers of the big coal mining sections. Great fields of corn, dark and grand, stretch out almost as far as the eye can see. It is a hopeful omen.

County Clerk Sergeant has purchased the Ben P. Sergeant property in the Lewis Addition and will locate in it at once.

Important orders with reference to the building and finishing of roads in our county were made by the Fiscal Court today. We will try to publish the orders in our next issue.

Attorney J. B. Snyder, of Williamsburg was here this week on business.

M. E. S. Posey, of Ashland, Division Engineer of the Kentucky State Highways, was here conferring with the Fiscal Court on State Highway Construction.

The Louisville & Nashville R. R. has put on an up-to-date parlor car for the accommodation of the traveling public. Only with a little extra cost passengers can now ride in this beautiful car and enjoy real life. For the present the car will be attached to trains Nos. 3 and 4. No. 3 arrives at Whitesburg at 8:55 p. m., No. 4 from McRoberts at 4:40 a. m.

Uncle Newt Thompson, of Sandlick, was taken seriously ill again and his children have been called to his bedside.

Jenkins is to have a big time on the Fourth and things are going to hop along lively at Seco. We printed the Seco advertising. You'll see it around.

Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Fields are at French Lick and M. C. Fields has just returned from there.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burpo, of Jenkins, are the proud owners of a bright and bouncing boy. The little fellow is groaning under the unepithetous name of George Harvie Burpo—not named after the present Ambassador of the Court of St. James but after his grandfather George Hackney and Lewis Harvie, of our town.

Owing to the fact that the editor was out enjoying the strenuous life, taking a short and much needed vacation, the Eagle is a little late and not so full of pep and sal—

We are glad to note that Circuit Clerk Steve Combs, after some months of sickness, is again able to be on our streets mingling with his many friends.

We have always maintained a peculiar pride in our subscription list at Jenkins, McRoberts and Fleming, as well as other hustling places in the coal fields, but we confess it ought to be double what it is. With our present good roads connections and with the improvements to be added at once we almost live in sight of each other.

On July 14th, the Southern Chautauqua opens at Whitesburg. By that time the farmer's very busy season ought to be over. They should come themselves and bring their families with them. It is not a show but will furnish high class entertainments of an educational nature, that which will be beneficial to all. Whitesburg extends a welcome hand and invites all to come.

Geo. Holbrook, progressive Bilvia farmer, was in town.

Esq. John H. Bentley was over from Jenkins looking as prosperous as ever.

Attorney David Hays, kindly and straight returned from a few days Southern business trip. Wednesday he ate supper in Birmingham and breakfasted next morning at the Phoenix hotel in Lexington. Birmingham is one of the prettiest Southern cities and almost exclusively a white man's town.

Tax Commissioner John M. Adams returned from a business trip to Frankfort. He will soon start taking tax assessments for this year.

Claims for the benefit of disabled soldiers of the late war must be filed within three weeks from now. After that time no attention will be paid to claims. See E. L. Frazier here or Robert Baker at Jenkins at once.

Archie Craft, Sergeant farmer and all-around hustler was down on business and looked after his subscription.

Hurrah for Letcher County

The Eagle has read the order of the Letcher Fiscal Court made today pertaining to the continuation of the building of County and State Highways. It looks like the old county of Letcher is going to outstrip her surrounding sister counties in progress and that, too, at once. Already we doubt whether there is a county in the mountains that in any way approaches Letcher in good roads. Think of it, 19 miles to Jenkins and less than two hours away. Seven miles to Sandlick Gap and less than one hour away! Should nothing interfere in a year from now a good start will have been made across Pine Mountain, pitching toward the big Harlan coal fields and to intersect with Harlan's State Highway now under construction to Poor Fork. If Perry and Knott don't get busy and meet us coming their way, shame on them! If every citizen of Letcher could take a hike over the highway leading from Whitesburg to Jenkins a million more dollars would be voted to finish the trunk lines leading to the rest of the county seats.

The Eagle endorses every move to build highways no matter in what direction or section, and it shows its hand.

Another Pioneer Called

On or about last Saturday night at her home on Bottom Fork, Aunt Bettie A. Webb, long life companion of Uncle Ned Webb passed to the great beyond. And Bettie Ann, as she was known by her hundreds of friends, was between eighty-five and ninety and for more than half a century had been a faithful and earnest member of the Regular Baptist Church. She was among the few left of the good old mothers of Israel and was loved by everybody. She leaves a husband, Uncle Ned, now over ninety, two children, both married women and several grandchildren to mourn her loss. To all these we extend sympathies.

Pine Top

Irvin Sturgill, James Mullins and Mrs. Flora Franklin are all quite ill.

Dr. Kelly, of Hindman, was in our midst.

Robt. Martin returned from a visit to Whitesburg.

Church at Mallet Fork Sunday was well attended. Preaching by N. G. Sturgill, David Madden and Noah Reynolds.

Ye scribe invites ye owner, ye editor, ye printer and ye devil to come over this summer and partake of our bounteous crops of garden "sass," apples, peaches, berries, plums, pears, grapes, 'n melons 'n everything. R

Note—Thanks, John, some of us will try to come.—Eagle.

Boy Drowned

Willie, 10 year old son of Sylvan and Mattie Taylor, was drowned in the Northfork of Kentucky river on June 14. The boy was just learning to swim and it is presumed he got beyond his depth and was drowned. The body was recovered and buried in the graveyard near his home. A father, mother, brother and sister are left to mourn for him. L W

What Did Sherman Say?

It is really hot, blazing hot—the days that make corn and other things for the farmers and good palatable and fatable grass for the cattle. It is also a beautiful time to pay subscriptions, to pay for job printing and take passage for a year on the Eagle's subscription boat. There is both standing and sitting room yet left. In hot weather we do nice printing, too.

We Take a Little Trip

Ye editor and little daughter, Roberta, and little son Woodford flew the coop the latter part of last week and led a strenuous life for a few days on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Bartley, at Weeksbury on the left fork of Beaver. We traveled via Jenkins, Shelby, Pikeville, Beaver Creek and Wheelwright. We wanted to see how the country had changed in the last ten years and it was so much that words are impotent to tell it. From Jenkins on you are scarcely out of sight of one nice little town, sometimes a large one, till you reach another. Pikeville, at the head of push-boat navigation on the Big Sandy, is a city of no small proportions, with miles of beautifully paved brick streets. As we passed along and briefly stopped a great many familiar faces of a decade ago looked bewitchingly up to us. They reached out the good old democratic glad-hand of years ago. We could name more than a dozen of them but space forbids.

Anyway, Pikeville is a dinger—whatever that is—and has a still more wonderful future right ahead. Beaver Creek is now a pretty little town overlooking the banks of the Sandy, and here, too, we slipped up on a number of very familiar faces. All the way up Beaver the old farms and a few of the old country residences still stand—landmarks of an ancient grandeur that is rapidly passing from the earth, swallowed up in the rush for gold. Ideal mining camps line many of the creek bottoms and mark queenly places at the mouths of the branches. Wheelwright and Weeksbury, where once and only a few years ago the wolf howled and the fleet deer ambled apace up the hills, are now progressive places, where the rattle of black diamonds is heard and spout from many tipples, where the whir of modern machinery makes music in the air and make dizzy the head. These are ideal camps and an air of prosperity and happiness pervades everywhere. But enough, now.

Notice

I have a brick building to be erected at Hazard, Ky., and used for a wholesale building. I will receive bids up until June 28 and the contract will be given to the best bidder. The building will be 50 x 70 feet, three stories with concrete basement. Any person desiring to give me a bid call at my place and get plans and specifications, or will be glad to mail copy to any one desiring to bid. S. H. Tolliver, Fleming, Ky.

We Stop Off at Jenkins

While at Jenkins Saturday we were privileged to visit the office of the Recorder and found the man in charge, Mr. Belt, in business up to his ears. He has a well equipped office and is turning out a volume of work besides getting out weekly one of the best neighborhood newspapers. Bro. Belt is an old hand at the wheel, a pleasant gentleman and is an enthusiast as to the great future in store for this end of the commonwealth. And the printing office was not the only place we stormed and captured. Judge Harry Moore was our chaperon and right royally did he do his chaperoning. We visited Lake Side the garden spot of the East-Kentucky hills with the Lone-some Pine reflecting its shadows into the beautiful lake and strolled along its rippling shores. At the post-office we met a glad hand—our Henry Sergeant (you'd think he was from Baltimore) and went thro it. It is right up-to-date and the best of service is given.

Then out to the ice cream factory where Mr. Francis showed us all the details of it. It, too, is modern in every particular. Space forbids our going into detail as to the other places visited, but we would be delighted to do so. Sometime, however, we are going to do so and then Jenkins will get some of its dues in picturesque touches.

Can You Beat It?

In going over the criminal docket of the Letcher Circuit Court we read the record as follows:

"Party gets bottle" of liquor and begins pouring its contents into his system until he is drunk; goes on up the road a short distance and his thirst for another drink leads him to uncork and get a little drunker; goes on a little farther and meets party against whom he has a little grudge about some forgotten matter when sober and assaults him and gives him a good beating; not satisfied with this he shoots under his feet two or three times to see him jump and in leaving the place in order to show that he is not afraid he empties his pistol again and then puts it back in his inside pocket where it is concealed; continues on a little farther and meets an acquaintance whom he suspects of having a little more liquor and in order to get it from him he pulls his pistol and waves it around in the air boisterously at which party becomes frightened and rather than have any trouble gives up liquor and then the subject in question proceeds to get gloriously drunk.

The result is 10 indictments.

Attorney W. K. Brown, formerly of our town, was here from his home at Akron, Ohio for a few days visiting and seeing his wife and little daughter.

EX-SERVICE MAN REGAINS HEALTH LOST IN FRANCE

Declares Tanlac Built Him Back to Finest Condition After He Had Given Up Hope Of Recovering From Troubles That Began In Trenches.

"It was just three weeks after I started taking Tanlac that my troubles ended," said F. L. Cumbe, 11 Brook St., Lynchburg, Va., carpenter and former service man. "My health began to fail in France and even after I was discharged I continued to get worse. My whole system seemed affected, especially my stomach and nerves. I had awful indigestion and it looked like every bite I ate caused gas on my stomach and terrible pains in my chest and around my heart. I was so nervous I shook all over and slept so poorly that I could hardly muster strength to get out of bed. I wasn't able to work regularly and was about ready to give up."

"I never saw the like of the way Tanlac put me back in fine shape. I eat three big meals a day now, work every day and call myself as good a man as I ever was. I can heartily recommend Tanlac to any body."

Tanlac is sold by all good druggists.

Why Buick Cushions "Ride Easy"

Buick cushions are comfortable on all roads because of their "double-deck" springs and resilient hair pads. The upper springs, which are light and easy-acting, yield to the slightest road irregularity. The lower springs are larger and stiffer. They come into play on rough country roads, carrying the passenger in comfort over bumps which cause the ordinary seat to "strike bottom".

Between the springs and the French-plaited leather upholstery are two thick, yielding pads of interlaced hair which positively prevent "lumping".

In Buick seat cushions, as in every other part of the car, is built the quality which has made Buick cars the standard of comparison.

Guaranteed 10,000 Miles Against Stone-Brui Rim-Cut Blow-Out

MILEAGE

Mileage is the "commodity" one purchases when buying a tire; not mere materials, but the service that certain materials will perform when combined.

Greater mileage is assured in Hydro-Toron tires because processes and principles employed represent the industry's greatest forward steps. The Internal Hydraulic Expansion Process prevents defects from being built into the tire—concealed from sight.

The Toron (no-rot) chemical treatment of fabric gives greater tensile strength, greater holding power between layers, increased affinity for rubber and complete protection against the damaging effects of moisture.

Hydro-Toron tires are oversize—as big as cords, better than cords. Next time you are ready to buy tires, come in and let us show you the tire you have heard so much about.
